Lively Responds to Coakley Defense of No-Free-Speech Zones at Massachusetts Abortion Clinics

Pastor Scott Lively, Independent candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, made the following statement in response to Martha Coakley's 1/15/14 press release in favor of No-Free-Speech Zones at Massachusetts abortion clinics:

Said Pastor Lively:

"I view the killing of innocent unborn babies to be the most vile and wicked act of which human beings are capable, and I would prosecute abortionists for aggravated first-degree murder if it were in my power to do so. It is a shame upon our nation that pro-life advocates are reduced to trying to dissuade the killing by physically standing at the gates of these so-called "clinics" to plead for mercy as these helpless children are being led to slaughter. In her zeal to champion the abortion industry, Martha Coakley denies even this pitifully small chance to save the babies.

Coakley, and her fellow abortion enthusiasts, are indirectly complicit in the murder of these tiny human beings and they will be held accountable for it by God in the next life, if not in this one. Our Creator is not deaf to the innocent blood that cries from the ground. Proverbs 6:17-19, Isaiah 59:7-8.

I pray for Martha Coakley to repent from the evil of abortion advocacy and to use the power of her office to oppose and not facilitate the continuing abortion holocaust in this state."
